CONFERENCE

You want your work environment to represent success, sophistication and style throughout. Aberdeen's complete line of conference tables and accessories will help you do just that. Designed to accommodate today's technology, Aberdeen's conference tables accept power modules for power and data access and easily conceal cables with modesty panels and integrated cable chimneys in the legs.

LET'S GET STARTED. . .

Now that you have discovered the beauty of the Aberdeen Series you will be amazed to discover how affordable it is to revitalize your office. Aberdeen is part of the REAL OFFICE family of casegoods from the Mayline Group, which backs the quality of their furniture with a limited lifetime warranty. Mayline is committed to personalized service and 100% customer satisfaction.

All of the products in the Aberdeen line are in-stock and available to ship within 72 hours. Mayline also offers a White Glove service where a team of professional installers will deliver, install, and remove the packaging for an additional 10% of the list price of your order.

On the back cover is a list of showrooms with furniture on display and sales reps that can help determine your needs and assist in the planning and ordering process. For more information contact Mayline at 800-822-8037 or on the web at www.mayline.com.

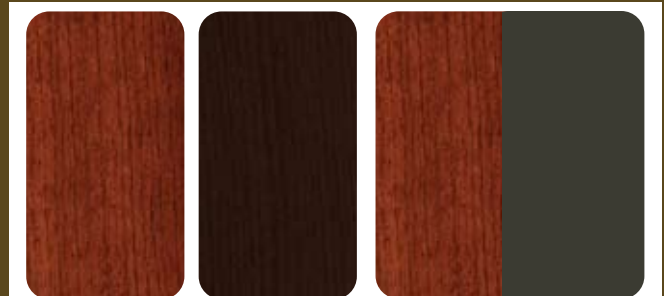

TEXTURED GLASS DOORS AND BRUSHED NICKEL HANDLES REFINE THE ABERDEEN OFFERING.

RECEPTION

Success within an organization can be felt the moment one walks through the door. Aberdeen's all-laminate line offers exceptional planning versatility that includes reception desking along with a wide range of storage options that can be configured to meet organizational needs throughout the office environment. We have given great attention to both functional and aesthetic details, including pre-installed hinges, unique storage, and textured glass accents. Aberdeen Reception, because you don't get a second chance to make a good first impression.
